

gifts of friends. Further remodelling of the chancel together with a new altar and choir stalls was made in the early part of 1950 under the leadership of the Rev. Norman Davidson.

Early in 1942, with war clouds threatening, the Local Council put the church building at the disposal of the armed forces, for any appropriate emergency need. On a guess that it might be needed as a first aid station, protective sand bags were installed outside. By July, the entire lower floor was being used by the U. W. S. O. as a reading, writing and game room for service men off duty. Ladies of the church acted as hostesses and provided refreshments each evening. Complete records seem not to be available. However, it is known that more than 9,000 service men accepted hospitality in the basement of this church. Mrs. J. C. Myrick was chairman of this project. Many a soldier, coming on week nights to play, returned on Sunday, to pray. In fact, khaki clad lads constituted a high proportion of the Sunday audiences during these months. This phase of the Pedro Miguel Church's service is a splendid illustration of a familiar pattern in Christian churches around the world, in war days. In it there are the valuable reminders that the church, with its unselfish interest in human welfare, does literally encircle the globe, and that this vast ongoing movement is ever at its fine best, when denominational divisions are relegated to the realm of the negligible.

Additional services rendered to groups outside the congregation, include worship programs for the Rainbow and De-Molay organizations. Repeatedly the use of the parlors and dining room were granted the Civic Council for "Mother and Daughter" and "Father and Son" banquets. At least a normal amount of attention has been focused on charitable causes. Benefiting, were the Old People's Home in Panama, the Belle Vista Children's Home, Missionary work among the San Blas Islanders, and that of the Methodist church.

Meanwhile, all the standard phases of a normal congregational life have been projected. Evening services were intermittently dormant, and effective, as had been youth programs. The fortunes of the Church School had been on the upgrade to the extent that even during a vacation month, July, 1943, there was an average attendance of nearly 100. There had been some experiments with Youth Congregations and Choirs.

Recent Pastorates

Following this longer pastorate came two very short ones, and a Stated Supply. The Rev. V. P. Hulse, between assignments as Chaplain with the U. S. Army, served six months beginning in April, 1946. He was succeeded by the Rev. Ralph A. Hirtle who, during the following December, began a service of slightly over a year. In February, 1948, U. S. Army Chaplain, Erick E. Swadell came as stated supply, remaining fourteen months. Some of the new projects innovated during these periods took root. Notable was the initiation of an Annual Bazaar and the organization of a Couple's Club, with its program of fellowship and service, including social meetings in the church, and a monthly Sunday dinner at the Hotel Tivoli. Other beginnings include a New Year's Eve Watch night service, classes for church membership, a Church-time Nursery, and the purchase of equipment for Visual Education.

The installation of the Rev. Norman Lambert Davidson on authority of the General Council of the Union Church of the Canal Zone, took place on June 5, 1949. The Rev. Henry L. Bell, Margarita, was the installing officer, aided by the Rev. Philip H. Havener, Cristobal; Mr. William Pullen, Pedro Miguel, and the General Council's Chairman, Mr. A. R. Campbell.

Life for Mr. Davidson began on a farm located seven miles from Nazareth, Pennsylvania. That distance he walked twice daily, during his High School training. Yet there was time to become one of the school's debating stars. Four years later he was graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Save for a small scholarship he had been master of his own financial destiny. Other academic attainments include a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Garrett Biblical Institute and the degree of Master in Education from Teacher's College, Temple University. The latter was attained in September, 1948, and illustrates the determination of this clergyman to keep abreast of thought trends. Studies in the Non-Commissioned Officers Training School, during World War I, the study of German in the Berlitz School of Languages, intensive courses under direction of the Council for Clinical Training, Inc., in Psychiatry at both the New Jersey State Hospital and the Federal Detention Headquarters, New York, together with a summer in the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, California, are further evidences of this commendable determination.

Extracurricular factors in Mr. Davidson's preparation to be all things to all men in a Union Church, include the organization of a Community Church in California and Community Leadership Training Schools in seven communities; active participation in Temperance and Peace movements; five months with a railroad Section Gang; service as a private in the U. S. Army in 1918, and as a Chaplain in the recent war, stationed in Georgia, South Carolina and Greenland. He was also a Contact representative in the Veteran's Administration for a year. His service as a Methodist pastor includes both rural and city parishes—and one Baptist church.

In December, 1917, he and Bertha Isabel Campbell were married. Three of their four daughters, Norma Louise, Lyla Grace and Naomi Maud, are married. The fourth, Vida Winifred, lives in her father's home in Pedro Miguel. The sons, Sterling Hayes and A. Dean, are still in college.

BOOK FOUR

OF GOOD REPORT

The foregoing symbols of an enormous achievement are reminiscent of Paul's classic tribute to the faithful: "And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise." If space permitted a parenthetical admonition it would center in God's immutable law of continuity—the adamant chain that links every generation with both its predecessors and successors. The inescapable responsibility to protect, and to increase, the legacies of spiritual ancestors, and so to indebt posterity. By such a noble succession alone every dream of God may fully flower—"and thou mayest add thereto." Always some Solomon erecting a temple out of the materials, and according to the plans, provided by his father; God ever shining through His saints, sages and prophets in one era to give the next a better world. No generation detached from its ancestry, either biological or spiritual; mutual dependence inherent.

Indeed, those enrolled here, who have fallen on sleep, may be heard crying to those who remain—it is your privilege to make a highway of the trail we blazed through the jungle of denominational confusion. But, if you fail, then we fail too!

In the following rosters some names doubtless are misspelled, and others are omitted. Let it be clear, however, that no effort has been spared on behalf of accuracy and completeness. Variances in the several parish listings may reflect an absence of records—entirely, or in part; or simply that one or more of the churches had official groups not maintained by other churches. Moreover, in some cases a church established an official body that was subsequently abandoned. In the membership tabulations the ambition was to list the members by the years during which they first joined the church involved. If the data provided was not so arranged it was published as submitted. The asterix (*) before the names of members indicates that the individual matured from youth in a local Union Church atmosphere. To have listed the name of every officer reelected to a given board would have been a pointless waste of space, hence only the date when first elected is noted.

BOOK FIVE
BACKGROUNDING THE "BIG DITCH"

By Albert V. McGeachy

The Isthmus of Panama, that tiny thread of low-lying land joining two vast continents and separating two oceans, covering half the earth's surface, was destined from the beginning to be the pivot of world commerce. The history of its discovery and colonization would fill many volumes but the objective of this thumb-nail sketch is not to portray the history of Panama as such, but to background the Panama Canal.

The Discovery and Early Colonies

Following the discovery and after he had made a second voyage to the Caribbean, Columbus, still searching for an all-water passage to India and Cathay, on his third voyage, sailed beyond the Caribbean and touched the coast of what is known today as Venezuela. On his fourth and last voyage in 1502 he made his landfall higher up on the American mainland in what is now known as Honduras. Farther down the coast he established the first European settlement on the mainland of America. This colony did not endure. The next attempt to colonize the new world was on Isthmian territory. The venture was led by Martin Fernandez de Encisco and Vasco Nunez de Balboa. They founded Santa Maria la Antigua del Darien, on the Atlantic littoral of the Isthmus. This colony flourished, thanks to the ability of Balboa to impose his authority and at the same time to hold the friendship of the Indians. The colony served Balboa as his base of operations from which to undertake the transcontinental march which ended in the discovery, on September 25, 1513, of the Pacific Ocean or South Sea as he called it.

Intrigue, envy and greed was the order in those days and Balboa did not escape the vindictiveness of his contemporaries who were envious of his glory and his ability. In consequence
